Program Guide 177

If the Marathon went well, this should be the first KRAB Program Guide for many of you. If so, welcome to the modestly increasing band of KRAB supporters. Your arrival has been celebrated by the paying of bills and purchase of essentials that were previously non-essential because they were financially unobtainable. But that's the way things go on a small and/or non-existent budget.

To you old hand subscribers, thanks for putting up with us throughout another tedious Marathon and making pledges even though you've already hocked Grandad's upper plate to support us. Welcome to Munchkin Land, everyone.

Heartiest thanks go to ~~two~~ dissimilar sources (which is what this station is all about.)

The first is Discount Records, who supplied various things to various people for the Marathon and at other times. If you're down that way (4302 University Way N. E.) buy a record or 12 and thank them yourself.

And a box of lox to Bellevue's own Mrs. George S. Prescott, who did all the classical music programming in this guide, assisted by her personable young son, Culster Gren Prescott. "I won't play any of that electronic garbage," said Mrs. George Prescott baroquey. "Gee, thats me!" said Culster.
